ABOUT

Imagine 7 heroes with "powers" capable of solving humanities greatest problems decided to do just that. Imagine this group was defined by individuals molded by something surpassing even money or power. Binded by something unlike any business structure in existence

Imagine humanity watched them, studied them, supported them, learned from them, and aspired to be like them

The group constructed awe-inspiring engineering feats that solved impossible challenges in innovative ways

The world took notice

If you want to go fast, go alone.
If you want to go far, go together.
